

I can't believe that you would "relax" any policy on this "do not call" program. Most Americans who registered on this forum do not want to be called - FOR ANYTHING - now those who did not register - they don't care. Let them get the callers who like to sell things over the phone. I do not want to see that Do-Not call policy "watered down" in any form. Thank you. Mary C. Rohde